Art Show Submission Requirements

Irene's Pub & Restaurant has 6 wall spaces dedicated to the visual arts, including proper U-V filtered lighting, rails, hanging chains and S hooks.

Art pieces must be originals or a signed print series produced by the exhibiting artist(s)

A jurying committee will determine the suitability to Irene's of all art submissions.

Price Point Policy: A maximum selling price of $500 is recommended, with the $200 - $300 range being most likely to attract buyers. Modest prices suit both emerging artists and Irene's patrons. Please bear this in mind when considering a submission and pricing your work.

Show Duration: Shows will usually be on view for approximately 4 weeks unless otherwise scheduled. Artworks must remain on the walls for the show's duration.

Please acquaint yourself with the information listed below concerning Irene's Responsibilities and the Artist's Responsibilities.

NOTE: Irene's Pub & Restaurant is not responsible or liable for damages or losses of any kind to artwork, no matter how this is caused.

Two-Step Submission Process:

Step One: Please provide the art curator, with a website or blog where artwork can be viewed at the time when you make an initial request. This is the essential first step when making a show inquiry. Use the Irene's website contact page.

Step Two: After the artwork for a show has been reviewed and deemed to fit with the Irene's environment, the curator will contact you to arrange a meeting at the pub to discuss the show dates and specifics.
